Newtown Festival Seeks Performers and Artists for 2016

Creativity Inspiring Community Action

Sydney, NSW, 16th June, 2016

Newtown Festival is back for 2016 with a new team and fresh attitude! The annual fundraiser for Newtown Neighbourhood Centre (NNC) is one of Sydney's biggest and most beloved events, and right now we are on the hunt for the best up-and-coming and established acts to fill its uniquely diverse line-up.

Having won the title of 'NSW Best Community Event' at the Australian Event Awards in 2014, as well as 'Best Music Event' at the FBi Radio SMAC awards, Newtown Festival has established a reputation for its trailblazing live entertainment and has hosted acts such as The Whitlams, Hermitude, Sarah Blasko, Sticky Fingers and Thundamentals.

Each year over 90,000 people come together to experience its array of music, food, the arts and creativity. Festival Director Gill Minervini said, "this year the Festival will be harnessing all this creative energy and directing it towards raising awareness about homelessness and money for NNC's First Response Program that helps people who have become homeless."

The festival is a proud supporter of emerging creative talent, and is once again seeking expressions of interest from performers and artists in the following categories:

Bands, solo musicians & DJs

Rock to reggae, hip hop to hillbilly – we are seeking artists from all musical genres.

Performers

Performance artists, cabaret performers, poets, children's entertainers and comedians.

Roving performers

Pop-up performance artists, circus skills, roving bands, solo musicians, hula-hoopers, acrobats, quirky buskers...

Visual Artists

Street, performance, sculpture, installations... new ways of visual expression.
