Purpose

Newtown Neighbourhood Centre (NNC) provides a range of activities for seniors, delivered in a safe and supportive environment. Social Support Groups increase social connection and engagement by providing participants with opportunities to:

- Socialise with people from the same cultural background and/or who have similar interests.
- Engage in physical activities, exercise and play games.
- Enjoy outings in the community.
- Share morning tea/lunch with their friends.
- Participate in health and educational discussions.
- Enjoy special events and activities throughout the year.

Context in which the role operates

Newtown Neighbourhood Centre (NNC):

- Is a not-for-profit organisation working in and around the Inner West and City of Sydney Local Government areas.
- Provides specialist services for people who are at risk of homelessness and social isolation, particularly those living in Boarding Houses.
- Provides community strengthening activities to all members of the local community.
- Delivers social and cultural events which celebrate the unique and creative vibe of Newtown.
- Is committed to justice, inclusion, action and fun in all that we do.

NNC Aged Care Services

Aged Services at NNC are funded under the Commonwealth Home Support Program and Central Eastern Sydney Primary Health Network to provide social support and connection for older people through a number of programs.

Social Support Groups:

- Are offered to local seniors including those from specific bilingual/bicultural groups backgrounds (eg Greek, Portuguese and CFF Yugoslavia).
- Are supported by trained staff and volunteers (including bilingual staff for the respective CALD groups) and meet at Newtown Neighbourhood Centre and/or in Marrickville (ie Greek groups) on a weekly basis.
- Provide a space for social connection and celebration of culture through events and celebrations.
- Provide opportunities to hear and learn from guest speakers
- Facilitate participation in the broader community via monthly community outings.

Individual Social Support is provided by matching older people with volunteers who share similar interests. Volunteers can provide social support at home or in the community and can provide assistance with day to day tasks like shopping.

Inner West Healthy Ageing hub – the Inner West Healthy Ageing Advisor provides information, education and programs to assist all seniors in the Inner West to age in a healthy manner. The Healthy Ageing advisor can provide direct support to assist seniors to navigate My Aged Care and the service system in general.

Emphasis and Impact of the role

The Social Support Group Assistant (Greek) has responsibility to ensure older people from a Greek and/or Portuguese background, are supported to remain independent and connected in their community. This is achieved by:

- Assisting the Program Coordinator to deliver a program of stimulating and engaging activities.
